Earthworks Entertainment Expands Its Horizons in a Variety of Ways in Partnership with Raging Bull Entertainment

Tuesday December 2, 2008 - 9:00 am ET

ADDISON, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Earthworks Entertainment, Inc. (Pink Sheets: EWKE - News), announced that it has signed a partnership agreement with Joe Isgro's Los Angeles based Raging Bull Entertainment, Inc. Co-producing films with Raging Bull, Steven M. Berez's Monarch Productions with Scott Storch musical scores will quickly position Earthworks Entertainment as a major player in the film industry.

Raging Bull Entertainment has many credits in its portfolio. The company produced "The Jimmy Hoffa Story" starring Jack Nicholson and recently announced production plans for "Escobar" (an Oliver Stone movie) and the story of Charles "Lucky" Luciano, which is co-produced with Steven M. Berez's Monarch Productions and music by the legendary Scott Storch, whose credits include productions of Beyonce, Christina Aguilera and Jaz-Z.

Earthworks Entertainment's CEO Steven Humphries said, "Teaming up with Raging Bull, Monarch and Storch positions Earthworks Entertainment alongside high visibility players within the film industry. We've already started on several projects, which will soon be announced."

"We are very pleased to have Earthworks as our partner and look forward to working with Steve in the production of quality motion pictures. Our team will contribute greatly to the partnership, assuring the success of Earthworks in the film business," said Raging Bull Entertainment's CEO Joseph Khouri.

The Agreement makes Raging Bull an equity partner in Earthworks and provides for the development of several films during the next 12 months.
